

Distractions in the Clayton Court Chapel

Bro. David Scarpa

Playful, prayerful early morning sun
Radiates light through
Glass of varied hue,
Reflecting vivid colours
On crucified Christ.

Colours reflecting vivid lives
Of Brothers' multifaceted talents
In apostolic service now done.
Their martyrs' crowns now won,
Resurrected with their Lord, golden crowned.

Noon sun, high in the sky,
Reflects through coloured glass
Its colours on white altar cloth.
The white wafer, more than it seems,
The offered cup tinged in blood red.

Our worshipping fraternal community
Accepts rich colours from eucharistic altar.
Accepts the risen Christ as wafer white.
Accepts the blood red wine from silver cup,
Offering our memories, vivid living colours.
